SHERIFF GOLDEN OFFERS YOUTHS VALUABLE EXPERIENCE THROUGH LAW ENFORCEMENT MINI ACADEMY

Freehold: Sheriff Shaun Golden is pleased to offer high school aged students throughout Monmouth County the opportunity to learn about a variety of topics that are relevant to the duties of a law enforcement professional, through the Monmouth County Sheriff's Office - Law Enforcement Mini Academy.

"This is a great experience for our youths with an interest in law enforcement, since it allows them to explore possibilities in the profession," said Sheriff Shaun Golden. "The valuable opportunity will provide insight into what it takes to become a public safety professional and may help produce future law enforcement leaders of tomorrow."

The Law Enforcement Mini Academy is 5 sessions. Each session will take place on Thursday evening from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM. The program begins Thursday, May 11 and continues through June 8, at the Monmouth County Police Academy in Freehold. Topics include Law Enforcement Background Check, Importance of Fitness in Public Safety, Risks and Dangers of Online Activity, Gang Awareness, Emergency Response Team Operations, Emergency Equipment Display, Sheriff's Public Safety Center Event, Drill and Ceremony.
