SHERIFF'S OFFICE PARTICIPATES IN "DRIVE SOBER OR GET PULLED OVER" CAMPAIGN

Monmouth County: Sheriff Shaun Golden is urging people to "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over" as law enforcement officers are cracking down on drunk drivers through September 4. The 2017 "Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over" campaign is led by the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety.

"We want everyone to enjoy the remainder of the summer, but, if you are going to drink, don't drive, it's as simple as that," said Sheriff Shaun Golden. "Law enforcement will be out in full force and on the lookout for drunk drivers."

In an effort to avoid presenting a danger to yourself or others, it's important to follow these safety tips:

- Before going out, designate a driver who will not consume any alcohol.
- DO NOT DRIVE if you are impaired. Call a cab, a sober friend or family member. If you don't have a ride, stay where you are.
- If you see someone about to get behind the wheel, or on a motorcycle, after they have been drinking, offer to find them a ride or alert your nearest law enforcement agency. Your actions may save someone's life, and inaction could cost a life.

- Under no circumstances should adults provide alcohol to a minor or allow anyone under 21 to consume alcohol while at their home.
- In New Jersey, an individual is considered over the legal limit if he/she operates a motor vehicle with a blood alcohol concentration of .08 or greater.

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in 2015, there were 562 fatalities on N.J. roadways, of them 111 involved alcohol impaired driving.

"Any fatality or crash on our roads is one too many," said Sheriff Golden. "Enforcing the law and educating the public about the dangers of drinking and driving raises awareness and helps keep our roadways safer."

Fifteen law enforcement agencies throughout Monmouth County received grants for this program through the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety.
