Recognizing the need for professional, well-trained police officers, the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders, in cooperation with the Monmouth County Police Chiefs Association and the Monmouth County Prosecutor, established the Monmouth County Police Academy in 1963. The Police Academy opened at its current location in 1985 and became a department of the Monmouth County Sheriff's Office in 2011.

The Academy conducts basic training courses for regular police officers, Class I Special Police Officers, Class II Special Police Officers, County Corrections Officers and County Park Rangers. In-service training courses for veteran law enforcement officers rounds out the Academy's calendar.

Outside instructors and companies supplement Academy staff and provide the best national and international programs for the local law enforcement community.

The Monmouth County Police Academy prides itself in being recognized as one of the premier law enforcement training facilities anywhere. Thousands of police officers from New Jersey and other states have undergone basic training and in-service training at the Academy and have continued on to distinguish themselves with pride, professionalism and integrity during their careers.
