A huge thank you to all essential personnel from the MCSO Communications, Law Enforcement & Corrections Divisions along with OEM staff and the members of Monmouth County Health Department stationed at the Sheriff Operations Center for working tirelessly.

National Doctors' Day

March 30th

Sheriff Shaun Golden and the entire community thank you for all your hard work and dedication!

There are countless people to commend during this crisis, who are working non-stop to maintain a healthy and safe environment, as well as ensure quality of life, while we live through this national emergency.

Sheriff Golden and the MCSO thank all who work in these fields and industries. You are doing a tremendous job and should be proud.

Healthcare | Police, Fire, EMS
Food Industry/Grocers | Journalism

Janitorial Services | Transportation
Sanitation | Many More

Sheriff Golden and the MCSO's Law Enforcement Division supporting and standing behind our healthcare workers and first responders at the PNC Arts Center site, where they got tested. They are courageous, heroic and working tirelessly as one of the greatest defenses against the Coronavirus.

MCSO THANKS ALL

Home Depot & Lowes donated N95 masks and gloves to the MCSO Correctional Division

EMS Task Force helped ensure first responders and healthcare workers had proper PPE gear to protect against the virus

Members of the Monmouth/Ocean PAL dropped bags of food off to seniors in Neptune.

Sheriff Golden and the Board of Chosen Freeholders conducting press conferences announcing the latest updates on Monmouth County's efforts against COVID-19, the state order of the release of certain inmates and donation drop off site.

The Monmouth County donation drop off site was held at Thompson Park in Lincroft where personal protective equipment was donated for our healthcare workers and first responders in dire need of the gear. Thanks to all who donated. The supplies are greatly needed and appreciated.

EMS Task Force assisted in setting up surge tents at Centra State Medical Center and Jersey Shore University Medical Center, which provide additional screening to lessen the risk of exposure to COVID19.

The importance of knowing when to dial 911 vs 211 and thanks to all of those unsung heroes on the other end of the line ready to help 24/7.

Federico's Pizza & Restaurant owners along with MCSO's Autism Awareness Coordinator Fran Hines delivered lunch to MCSO staff 911 operators.

Thanks to local businesses and organizations for thinking about MCSO during these tough times.
In times of need we come together

MCSO 911 Center's night shift got a special treat courtesy of Girl Scouts Troops 60330 and 60195 of Freehold Township. Everyone's favorite Girl Scout Cookies.

Freehold Township Fire Station 16-1 and International Flavors and Fragrances IFF donate hand sanitizer to MCSO Communications Division.

PST Joe Higgins and his family bought pizza for our essential personnel at the MCSO to make sure they are being well fed as he supports them and local businesses.

Support local business and take a break from cooking to show them we still care by ordering takeout.

Many beaches and boardwalks in our Monmouth County shore towns remain closed to maintain social distancing. Sheriff Golden asks all to please follow the rules. No parking by the boardwalk or walking on them is permitted and there is limited access to beaches. Stay home, social distance and stay safe. There will be plenty of time to enjoy our beautiful Jersey Shore this summer if we all adhere to the restrictions now.

*Bright beginnings are always the best beginnings.
Stay positive, stay safe.*
