MONMOUTH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE RECRUITS FROM THE 30th ANNUAL SHERIFF YOUTH WEEK GRADUATE

Freehold: Sheriff Shaun Golden opened up Sheriff Youth Week by telling recruits to bring energy, enthusiasm and excitement with them each day, and, ended it on graduation day, by proudly handing certificates to the 47 participants who completed the 30th annual Sheriff Youth Week Program. The highly recognized program ran from July 10 through July 14 and is anything but an ordinary week of summer camp. It equips high school aged students with a unique opportunity to explore interests in law enforcement through police academy-style training, exercise activities and instructional sessions.

"We are so proud of the entire Sheriff Youth Week class for staying the course and commend all for completing this intensive week of law enforcement training. At the beginning of the week, I tell the recruits that they if they are engaged and excited about this program, it will be an experience of a lifetime." said Sheriff Golden. "Sheriff Youth Week provides our youth to explore the realm of possibilities of a career in public safety. As a result, many will become future leaders in law enforcement."

Each day began with drill and ended with exercise. During the week, the class learned about various law enforcement topics and agencies. An overview of the Monmouth County Sheriff's Office Law Enforcement, Communications and Corrections Divisions as well as the Office of Emergency Management was provided.

Interactive sessions included mock drills from the Corrections Emergency Response Team (CERT).

A major focal point of the week was when recruits spent the day at the Monmouth County Fire Academy where they got a firsthand look at training and what it takes to become a firefighter. They toured the smoke house, learned how to handle a hose and climbed the ladder. Recruits spent another great day at the Situational Training And Response Simulator, STARS facility. In rotational groups, recruits learned about the VirTra Simulator, a decision making and tactical firearms virtual threat simulator, which is equipped with five large screens and shows real life types of scenarios. In addition, K-9, Project Lifesaver, vehicle simulator, drone, dive team and motor vehicle stop demonstrations were conducted, along with a display of special operations and equipment. Also included throughout the week were presentations on drug awareness, and entire regimen of health and fitness including a 5-K run. The recruits also learned about the use of a NJ State Police helicopter and got to see the inside.

“This experience as a sheriff youth week recruit has been great. I’ve learned so much through the presentations, physical fitness and the interactive displays. Sheriff Youth Week was very inspiring and a career in law enforcement sounds great,” said Jaxson Adkins, Manalapan.

“It’s been challenging but a lot of fun and you have to be motivated. The program has made me respect those who work in law enforcement because you learn what goes in to protecting the public,” said Jacenia Furman, Neptune.

“This is my second year participating in Sheriff Youth Week and there is nothing like it. I hope to attend West Point and possibly pursue a career in law enforcement after that. I think programs like this open your eyes to all aspects of law enforcement since it’s a great opportunity to learn and helps pave the way toward the future,” said Jake Dembowski, Middletown.

“The instructors do a great job, they challenge you and I’ve learned so much about all aspects of law enforcement. I also made new friends and it’s been a great experience,” Matteo Thompson, Tinton Falls.
